Deleasse Accused of Timidity.

It is the general opinion here that the naval demonstration against Turkey was "much ado about nothing." The government is more ridiculed than praised. Foreign Minister Deleasse's timidity is too apparent to permit French prestige to derive benefit from the demonstration. The only man who has improved his reputation is M. Bapst, councilor of the French embassy at Constantinople, who throughout the dispute showed remarkable tact and foresight, and, above all, firmness.

The favorable disposition shown to our representatives abroad has been due to the fact that the civilized wor'd has had opportunity during the h t seven years to observe the progress of the anti-European movement in the Sultan's counsels. Frenchmen, Americans, Austrians, Italians, and Britons have all been victimized by the Sultan and his counselors. After the Armenian massacres and the successful war with Greece they thought everything was permitted to them. We hope the Sultan will now understand his duties toward the civilized powers and toward the civilized powers and toward his own subjects, unto whom he has taken solemn engagements which he has always disregarded. Otherwise Europe, which, thanks to the energetic action of France, is now able to reason assume at Constantinop, e the authority she lost seven years ago, will applicable to take to extort from the Sultan the execution of clauses too long falles into dismo."

HARD TO PAY THE RANSOM.

The Sincerity of the Police in Making the Arrests Is Doubted-Both Women Tog-ther and in Good Health-Dickinson's Position.

Sofia, Nov. 12.-Two Bulgarians were arrested in the Turkish village of Djuma, near the border. Two others were arrested at Dubnitza, on the Bulgarian side. The four men are charged with being implicated in the abduction of Miss Stone. The evidence of their complicity has not, however, been made public, and the sincerity of the police in making the arrests is doubted. It is believed that the action of the government is intended to intimidate the brigands and The government is determined to evade all responsibility and protect the Macedonian revolutionists. The capture, according to the Bulgarian government, took place on Turkish territory, and therefore the release must Labor's scheme for an organization also be made there. As United States to fight the injunctions of judges and Consul General Dickinson insists on also be made there. As United States the release of Miss Stone before payment of the ransom is made, negotiations will probably be prolonged. It is also asserted that the brigands have recently been treating Miss Stone with more severity in order to exercise pressure and to compel a more ready acceptance of their conditions. Consul General Dickinnon is inflexible. He insists that the surrender of Miss Stone must payment of the ransom. His attitude is justified by the known determination of some members of the band, particularly the captain, Yanne Sandansky, to kill Miss Stone and her companion as soon as the ransom is received, owing to the fact that the captives have now acquired information concerning the secret committees.
